

2026 THERAPEUTIC TOUCH® RETREAT REGISTRATION FORM

MAY 1 – 3, 2026

DEEPENING CONNECTIONS: WITH OUR NATURAL WORLD

In order to deepen connections, we need to build relationships. The Earth is always reaching out to us inviting us to develop or expand our relationship with her, it is that we do not always pay attention. Dora knew, and understood this wisdom and connected deeply with the natural world. Our first nations people knew how-to live-in harmony in relationship with earth they allowed her to teach them. As we deepen this relationship with the energy and flow of our natural world it can act as a scaffolding for our practice of Therapeutic Touch (TT). As we work towards rebuilding/expanding a relationship with the earth and enhancing our relationship with our Therapeutic Touch practice, not to mention ourselves. Join us.

Join Patricia Tamosetis and Our Special Guest Grandmother Dale Cimolai

Dale is Anishinaabekwe with some English and Scot heritage. (Water Walker, knowledge keeper, creative activist. Her body, heart, and spirit have been connected to water all her life. From childhood she was raised, taught, supported, comforted by the waters of Lake Nipissing and Park's Creek in North Bay, Ontario. With the companionship and wisdom of the land as her guide she worked and studied in North Bay, Ottawa, Algonquin Park and now lives in Brampton in the Credit River Watershed. Dale embraced Therapeutic Touch in 2013 after retiring from teaching to begin a passionate river of volunteering with hospice: in-house at Bethell Hospice as well as within the community with palliative and bereavement clients. Guided by the wisdom of her elder teachers, she continues to work in the healing arts with all ages of people.
